SCRUB A DUB DUB

On Sunday June 11th the Lodge held its first Lodge Clean Up Day. WOW what a turn out! On one of the hottest days of the year we had over 25 members show up and pitch in. One even gave up his golf league. Thanks Erik.

Members scrubbed, painted, hammered, sawed, degreased, pressure washed, scrubbed more, cleared brush, trimmed trees, repaired chairs and stools, and did I mention scrubbed.

After a hard day's work, all the volunteers were treated to an appreciation cookout with burgers, hot dogs and draft beer.

We weren't able to complete all the jobs on our Honey-Do list but it was a good start. We have more to do so you may see another cleanup day coming. Thank you once again to all the members who volunteered their time to make our Lodge a little nicer.

The Gov,
Doug Ayers

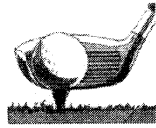

Lodge Clean-up Accomplishments

- *Stripped out & cleaned all the coolers behind the bar
- *Cleaned all shelves & floor behind bar
- *All the feet replaced on bar stool & chairs
- *All chairs, stools, & tables scrubbed & bolts & screws replaced or tightened
- *Floor mats behind bar pressured washed & floor tiles replaced
- *Kitchen was tore down & scrubbed, degreased, reorganized & if not bolted down it was pressure washed
- *The columns on the building front were rotting & were replaced with new supports
- *The wall on the patio was painted & all the patio furniture was scrubbed & pressure washed
- *The brush & trash behind the garage was removed, the trees trimmed, & the area around the concrete patio graded
- *Many of the ceiling & light panels were replaced in the Lodge room & kitchen

Work still to be done
